Foreword: To the outsider the initials, C.C.H.S. stand for Central Catholic High School. For all true Centralites they embody the four characteristic marks of a lover of Christ—Charity, Courage, Honesty, and Sanctity.

Signed with the seal of Central we are set apart—not from our fellowmen—but for our fellowmen. Every class, every activity, every engagement met has imprinted deeper into our characters these four letters so that we may step into a grossly materialistic world and make the presence of Christ felt. Centripetal '49.

With the same seal, with the same ideals the class of '59 faces the world of today.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

TOLEDO 8, OHIO

Dear Mom and Dad,

We are dedicating this, the fifty-nine Centripetal, to you hoping that in some small way it will show our appreciation and gratitude for all your help.

We are thankful that God in His loving mercy and kindness put us in your expert care. You have been our guide and counselor with no problem too large or insignificant for your personal attention. You shared our joys and comforted us when misfortune came. In victory or defeat, you were always behind us, cheering us onward.

In the past years, you have helped us with our homework, drilled us for tests, and each day sent us forth in the quest for knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. Although these last four years have passed entirely too fast, we will go forth enriched with this knowledge, to take our place in the world.

The dedication of the yearbook is, we think, one of the greatest honors that we as seniors can bestow on anyone. As we grow older, we will continue our appreciation. But this is the beginning, the starting point.

Come now, and let "us lead you" on a tour of Central as we first saw it, as we have lived it, and as we shall leave it.

The first member of the faculty that we came in contact with was Monsignor Harrington, our principal, who was always on hand to help us with our various problems. Father Walz, the assistant principal, met many of us in the penalty period—the session known as "the happy hour." Soon we also became acquainted with the priests, sisters and the lay men and women who form the faculty of our school.

Do you remember when Father Walz, at

Consignor Harrington interviewed you at the Parent-Teacher meeting, November 16'

Now, since you have met the leaders of the school, the faculty, we want to introduce you to the spirit of Central, the student body.

This group can be compared to a well-organized business. The seniors, as executives, are the ones who set the standards of the school. They show their leadership abilities by presenting the Senior Play, by heading the Student Council, the governing body of the school, the Centric, our school paper, and this yearbook.

The Juniors, as Junior executives, help the Seniors in many ways. They receive, as an acknowledgement of this, positions on the Student Council and their cherished class rings. Near the end of the year, to prove that they are capable of holding the Senior executive's position, they plan and promote the Junior-Senior Prom, their biggest undertaking to date.

The Sophomores might be compared to skilled workers. They have acquired much, but have even more to learn before they become the executives. To demonstrate what they have acquired they sponsor "Tag Day", three days in which many new friends are made.

The Freshmen, as trainees, are the newest members of the school. They watch and learn from the activities of the other classes. In a few short years, after much training, they will become the big bosses of the school.

Our business motto might well be "Catholic leaders are our most important product."

However, Mom and Dad, when you think of Central, don't think of just one class; think of one school, of all the classes combined, working together as one.

Dear Central,

We the Class of '59 who have spent the last four years in our quest for knowledge within your halls, realize, as we stand on the threshold of life that now we are leaving your guiding care to embark on our own. During these four years you have become a part of our way of life and we have grown in wisdom, because of your understanding and guidance.

In leaving you we want to promise, that we shall never forget the ideals instilled in us by your devoted staff. We hope that by our future accomplishments you will be proud to number us among your loyal alumni.

Class Officers: Richard Szymanski, president; Judy Rokicki, secretary; Paul Palka, treasurer. Mary Lou Farmer, vice president

Attendance Office

Central's Bureau of Investigation

"Where is your excuse?" or "Who signed this excuse, your mother?" are a couple of questions that may be heard in the attendance office. This room of perpetual activity is under the direction of Sister Loretta and Sister Cleopha. They issue to students, white slips for absenteeism, pink slips for tardiness, and blue slips for unexcused absence.

This office plays an important part in the operation of the penalty hall. As an added activity they tabulated the count of all the rosaries prayed by students during the Rosary crusade, for the basketball victories and for the men and women behind the "Bamboo Curtain" in Red China.

Mrs. Wroe sees that the heat's on for Tom Lupica

Nurse's Office

Midget Hospital

Housed in room 224 is Central's own miniature "hospital" under the supervision of Mrs. L. Wroe, the school nurse. Here an average of twenty "patients" per day are treated for various ailments from a headache to a sore muscle.

This year Central was selected as one of the schools selected to participate with the American Health Foundation to "Get American Youth Off Its Seat And On Its Feet Again." Among the doctors participating in this survey were Drs. Fanelly, Kaczmarek, Maloney and Restivo, Central graduates

Have you ever wondered how Central keeps all these 2100 students, like me, busy? Have you seen the classes where I am taught? To make it more realistic I will show you a daily schedule.

| Period | Time | Subject | Room |
|---------------|-------------|----------------|-------------|
| 1 | 8:30- 8:43 | Conference | 130 |
| 2 | 8:47- 9:30 | Math | 328 |
| 3 | 9:34-10:17 | Physiology | 313 |
| 4 | 10:21-11:04 | Journalism | 121 |
| 5A | 11:08-11:29 | Typing | 105 |
| 5B | 11:33-11:52 | Lunch | Caf. |
| 5C | 11:56-12:17 | Typing | 105 |
| 6 | 12:21- 1:04 | French | 217 |
| 7 | 1:08- 1:51 | Study | 226 |
| 8 | 1:55- 2:38 | Religion | 115 |

Does this confuse you? Well it did me when I first started school! Let me explain it. I report to my home room and the day begins with conference period. During this time announcements are made over the P.A. System: collections for all drives take place and, in general, all business is taken care of. At the 8:43 bell I rush to my second period of the day. I hurry because in just a few minutes the class bell will ring and if I'm late, I'll receive a penalty. Third and fourth periods follow in the same order. But the fifth, lunch period, deviates somewhat. At A, B, and C, one-third of the school goes to the cafeteria, while the other two-thirds report for study or classes.

By 12:17, I am back on the regular schedule and the afternoon classes continue until 2:38. Dismissal finds me rushing to my locker and then to the waiting busses, that is if I don't have a penalty to serve after school in room 222.

Here is proof that

We are certain you enjoyed your visit to our classrooms.

Retreat

Annual Inventory

The world moves at a rapid pace never ceasing its activities. From time to time we must pause and take inventory of our lives. Central students are given this opportunity during their annual three day retreat. During these days spiritual talks are given and periods of meditation are held.

Mass begins each day with most students receiving Holy Communion. Confessions are heard all during the day and there are always priests on hand for private talks. Strict silence is observed throughout the retreat. The rosary is recited in all conference rooms and students make the way of the cross with Christ by assisting at the stations.

The climax of the retreat is reached on the last day, when the retreat masters give the Papal Blessing to all who have made the retreat.

Religion

Our Quest For Happiness

Religion classes stress and illustrate the theme "Our Quest for Happiness" throughout the four years at Central. Some may take it to mean money, riches, fortunes, or health, but we, Centralites, feel that we have captured and found the true and real meaning of happiness, that is the sharing and living in Christ's life

The object of the religion course is to enable students to know and to practice their faith so that they may spread a knowledge of God's love, among their fellowmen

"The Quest of Happiness" the story of Divine Love as revealed in the Creative Love of God the Father; the Redeeming Love of Christ; the Sanctifying Love of the Holy Ghost and the Church; and the Beatifying Love of the Triune God; comprises the four year course of study

English-Public Speaking

Bridge To Knowledge

The Communication Arts Program places emphasis on reading, writing, speaking, and listening. It reaches out to every subject in the curriculum, for the treasures of knowledge must travel across the bridge of language. Students learn to express themselves naturally and habitually in good English. The normal conventions of written form as found in the Tressler Series of textbooks play an important part of the English program.

Since literature and writing are closely related, much stress is placed on the idea of literature as a record of the appreciations, hopes, and ideals that have shaped man's destiny. The Cardinal Newman Series of textbooks is used throughout the four years.

Students also participate in various essay contests such as the National Essay Contest and the CYO essay contest in which Central placed eight winners this year.

Poise, self-possession, the ability to assemble and express one's thoughts correctly before others; are some of the enviable benefits offered by the public speaking course.

Students conduct demonstrations and are encouraged to participate in the Senior Class Play, the Operetta and the CYO oratorical contest.

Richard Thomson ponders the future of Germany

German

Breaks Down Prejudice

The prejudice against the study of German which stems from World War I has resulted in severe curtailment of the opportunity to study this language in high school. This is unfortunate because there is in the German language a vast scientific literature to which access is important to scientists. To understand the present day Berlin crisis and the plans for its future it is necessary for the people of the world to be educated in the language, customs and history of the German people

The two year course presented to Central's students, while not as complete as possible offers them an opportunity to become acquainted with the people of Germany. A thorough study of the German language reveals that peace not only can be promoted, but also maintained between the citizens of the U. S. and the citizens of Germany.

Spanish

Establishes Latin America Contact

"¿Como esta usted?" echoes through the Spanish classroom as the students of Central are taught the principles of Spanish grammar and sentence structure. After this basic study, the students learn the customs, culture and history of the Spanish people. They also study the courteous manners, gestures and habits of our Latin-American friends.

This knowledge is practical because it can provide a closer understanding of our Pan-American neighbors, and help us avoid misunderstandings, commercial jealousy and social quarrels. The language also holds an offer of usefulness in such positions as the diplomatic service, commerce and journalism.

The customs and culture of the Spanish people are reflected in their every day life. Gay fiestas, exciting dances, temperaments vibrating with enthusiasm and magnetism, render Spain, a country rich in traditions and customs, truly a land of culture and beauty.

Latin

Path To Excitement

"Arma virumque cano." Once more Vergil's great epic captures the interest of students as they travel on Aeneas' journeys.

To these Centralites, Latin is a living language that leads them onto the paths of adventure and excitement. After the first year of study of the "lingua Romana" these 'Romans' spend three more years using these principles and their imaginations to accompany Caesar on his Gallic wars, to stand in the Roman Forum while Cicero delivers his orations, and to recline in the emperor's palace to hear Vergil deliver his poetic version of the founding of Rome.

Since competition enriches life, the Latin students usually enter the nationwide Auxilium Latinum contest, and their scores indicate general proficiency and individual excellence in this difficult language.

French

Guidepost To Culture

Students are introduced to this foreign language through the basic rules of grammar and vocabulary. As they progress they learn about the customs, traditions, literature, history, and the famous cultural landmarks of France. By the study of this language their minds are trained in accuracy and clear thinking and they develop a sense of appreciation for our French neighbors across the ocean.

Later in the year interesting projects such as the study of the many French provinces were undertaken. Girls in the various classes crocheted traditional costumes for the dolls of the different provinces. After much research and study students in all of the classes discussed the provinces represented by the dolls, pointing out especially the diversified interests of the inhabitants and their cultural achievements.

Girls' Art

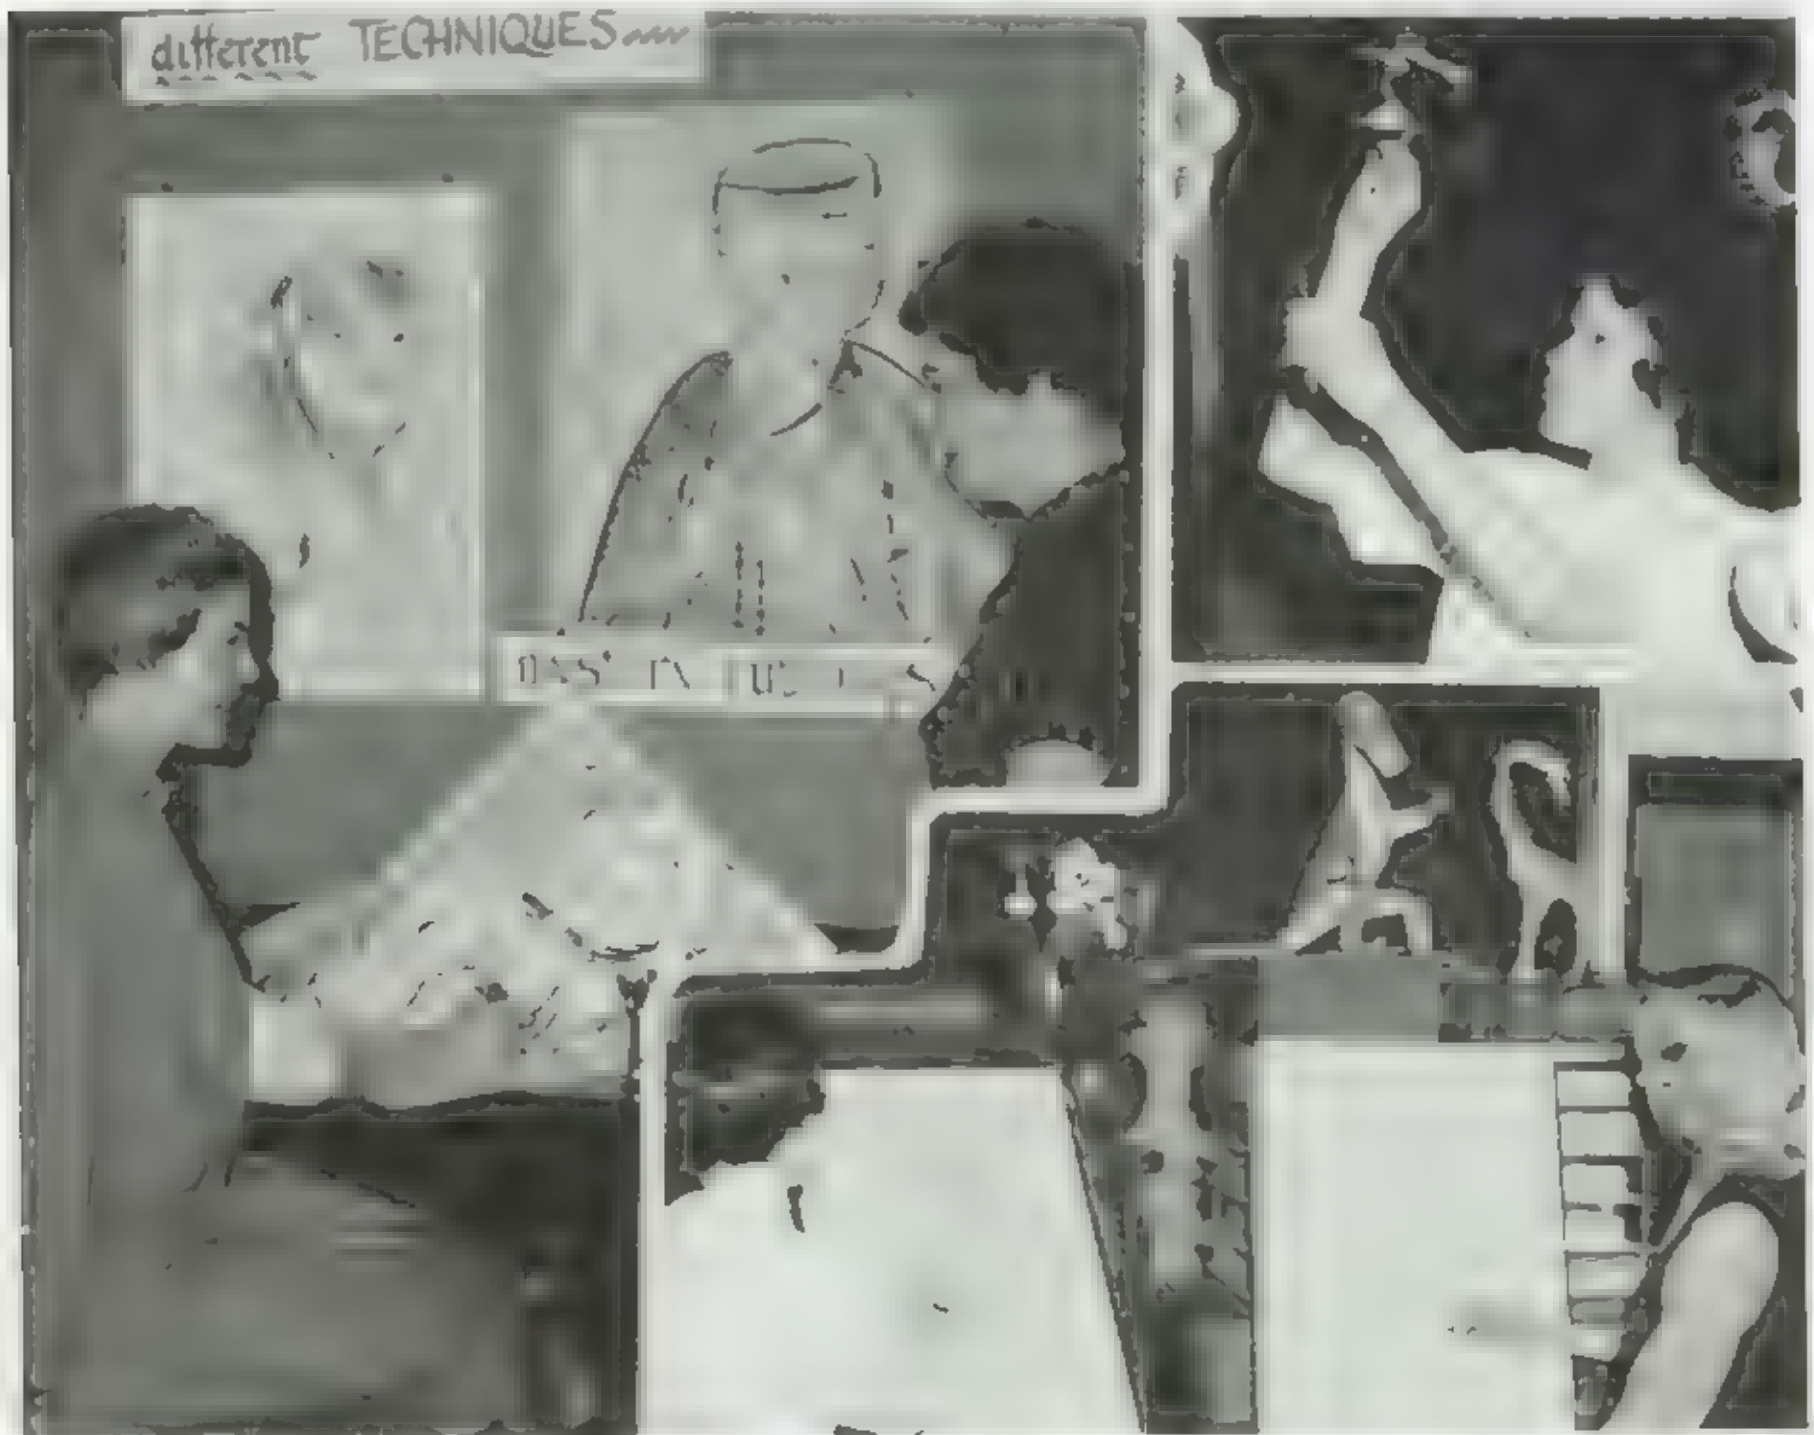

Keynotes Liturgy

In the Girls' art department, liturgy and contemporary life were stressed as the keynote of artistic activity.

This year, the entire class using off-beat drawing instruments — combs, sponges, and cardboards in place of brushes and pens — created projects which were entered in the National Catholic Welfare Anniversary Contest. Judy Morrison, Judy Oden, Kathy Marcinek, Janet LaVigne, Barbara Beyer, Marie Kovach and Joanne Tucholski won the top seven places.

One who has never had the fun of creating and making something with his head, heart and hands has truly missed an experience in life.

The Boys' Art Program is designed to lay the foundation for our future's designers. With pen and pencil techniques, theory of color and designing, students are given opportunities to apply the theory to practical problems.

Drafting

Blueprint Experts

Central's budding engineers and draftsmen learn the principles and basic concepts of the system of projection drawing during their first year. For the first time, engineering geometry is taught for the first twelve weeks of the second year. It enables the students to visualize previous constructions by improving their ability to reason in space. The remainder of the year is spent on machine drawing, the study of standards, shop processes, sectioning, dimensioning, and detailing.

This knowledge is then applied to individual projects. This two year course frequently opens the door to an industrial job by making the students "literate" in the field of engineering.

Elementary and Advanced Algebra train young minds in a skill so vital in our rapidly moving world.

Circles, squares, and triangles are only parts of the field studied in plane geometry.

In Solid Geometry, these figures become spheres, prisms, and pyramids.

For the business minded student, Business Arithmetic holds a certain fascination.

Physics

Way To Outer Space

From their study of physics these amateur physicists learn the answers to such questions as, "How can rockets be made to orbit around the sun and the moon?" or "How do the atomic submarines operate?"

The students find how intrinsically important as a fundamental science physics is in this atomic age and how it provides the necessary instruments to solve today's many scientific problems. To help in this understanding, the students master the general principles of atomic physics, electricity, heat, light, mechanics motion, and sound; spending three days a week in obtaining needed information through lectures, demonstrations, and films; two days in the laboratory where, by experiments, the principles previously learned are proved.

Chemistry

Scientists' Yardstick

Many students know that H_2O is a symbol for water but how many know that it means that every molecule of water is composed of two atoms of hydrogen and one of oxygen. All things in the universe are composed of one or more of the one hundred and two elements now known to man. The chemists seek to discover which ones make up every substance in the world, visible or invisible, and what the relations of the component parts are to each other.

In class the students probe into the basic laws and principles of chemistry and the atomic theory of matter which holds such an important place in this Space Age. Thus they better understand the great importance and recent innovations of the power supplies by uranium and radioactivity in the fields of medicine, agriculture, defense and manufacturing.

Biology

Insight To Nature

Have you ever watched a plant grow from a tiny seed or studied a drop of water under a microscope? No—, well these are just two of the wonders you encounter in your biology course. Through the use of charts and microscopes, the life cycles of plants and animals are closely observed.

Our world contains thousands of living organisms, many visible to the naked eye. These include the smallest forms of animal life, (the amoeba), to the largest, (the whale), and plant life from microscopic plants to the huge redwood trees.

The highlight of the course this year, as in previous years, was the annual science fair held at Bowling Green State University on April 4. Some projects that were taken by Centralites included such things as—The Story of Aluminum, Water Purification, and The Heart and Circulatory Systems.

Rome, Tours and Gettysburg—Do you remember where these places fit into the story of man's successes and failures? Through history, tales of lost civilizations and bold adventures are brought to your attention.

From the first day in class, you are kept on a constant round of adventure. First on your schedule is a trip back to the days of King Menes and onward to ancient Greece, and Rome, then to the Crusade, then you watch the modern European states develop

Through the use of movies obtained from DuPont and General Electric, you note the progress of the revolutions in Europe such as the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution.

With the use of maps students follow the growth of their own country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. From the Pilgrims in New England the lines on the maps progress, through the exploration of such men as Lewis and Clark to our present day 59'ers in Alaska.

Fashion Future Citizens

So, to us is the stage of society and group behavior. Christian ideas to Catholic social action toward the issues of our time are instilled in the minds of the students. After completing this course one should emerge into the world as a good Christian citizen.

Central services are required to take a semester of Government which prepares the student to be better equipped to perform the duties of a citizen. The function of Government is to safeguard our God-given rights by the administration of just laws for the common good.

Economics teaches the student the laws of wealth, production, exchange, distribution, and consumption. Economics is a science which calls for accurate thinking based on accepted principles. It is available to seniors who would like to probe into the everyday civic problems. Economics will help the student in his everyday school life and will serve him equally well in the future.

In this division of the book we will attempt to present to you an overall picture of Central's 1958-'59 sports' program.

We have done exceedingly well in all our sports activities this year. During the football season, the Varsity captured second place in the city league and won the Kentucky State Championship by defeating Flaget High, the first place team in Kentucky. Our lightweight team took the city championship in the lightweight division. The freshman record showed that good material is in the making.

During the basketball season, we won eighteen straight games and became City Champs. However in the State Tournament games, we lost our first game to Waite 62-61, but this defeat did not keep us from being ranked second in the State. The Lightweights finished second in the city, while the Freshman team with a 13-1 record captured the City Title.

Although football and basketball are our major sports, we also have track, baseball, tennis, golf, and wrestling teams. Our wrestling team won the City Title and the Sectional Tournament.

As our book goes to press, the baseball team, which is in first place with a 5-0 record, has six city league games remaining. In the tournament they have captured the Sectional and District trophies and have advanced to the Regional tournament.

The golf and tennis teams each have a 3-1 league record and are second in their leagues.

The girls of Central also participate in athletic activities and their sports are listed under the G.A.L. (the Girls' Athletic League) section.

We hope you'll enjoy the special attractions we have listed for you on the following pages.

Mr. Richard Finn—Athletic Director

Mr. Finn has been Athletic Director for several years at Central and has tried to promote to his fullest extent the sports activities. Along with this he is the coach of the freshman football team and lightweight basketball team.

He graduated from Ohio State University where he received his BSE, and was captain of the Buckeye baseball team in his senior year.

We should all thank him for having our home games played at T.U. Field House.

Mr. Daniel Piloseno—Wrestling Coach

In 1954 Central added to its faculty Mr. Daniel Piloseno. Coaching the football team has taken much of his time and effort. To this he adds the achievement of having his wrestling team go undefeated in the city league for the first time in the history of the school.

He has not devoted all of his time to just these two things. He is the director of the intramural program and of the physical education.

Coach Piloseno

Mr. Richard Basich—Assistant Coach

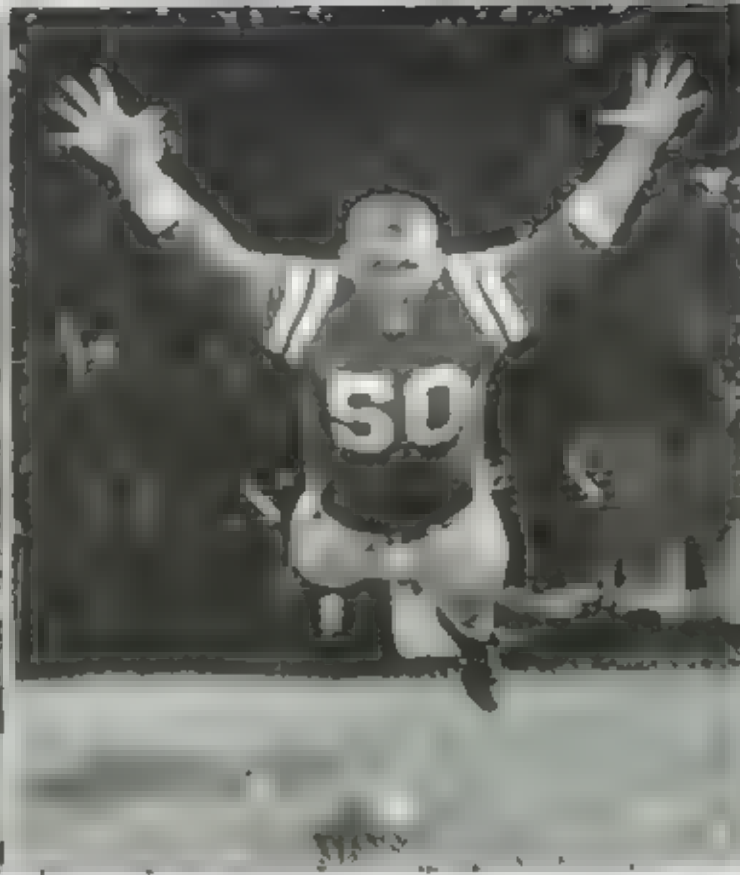

Graduate of University of Toledo, played on the T.U. Rockets varsity three years and is now putting his knowledge in the Central's backs, and is a teacher of economics and sociology.

Basketball

The 1959 Central Catholic Varsity Basketball team has come across with another first in the history of Central. The team, under the magnificent direction of coach Robert Nichols, has won their first undefeated All-City trophy. Mr. Nichols, although only in his third year of coaching here at Central, has done a terrific job of coaching his boys to their unanimous string victory of 18 wins and no losses.

Although Mr. Nichols is not a graduate of Central, we at Central think he is now a qualified and outstanding member of "The Fighting Irish."

Wrestling

An increased interest in wrestling was made quite evident this year by the gratifying attendance at the matches. Central's fired up mat men didn't let down this crowd of wrestling enthusiasts either, because they went all of the way. Their daily practice sessions, lasting until 6.00 p.m. enabled our grapplers to go undefeated in the city league matches and take Toledo's first prep wrestling championship.

Central wrestlers, in addition to their City Championship, also captured first place at the regional wrestling tournament by bringing home a total of 78 points. Pat Reilly

(145) and Paul Palka (175) won championships for the Irish in their weight divisions.

In the State Tournament in Columbus Pat Reilly placed third in his weight class.

Girls' Athletic League

Women On The Ball

The Girl's Athletic League established at Central in 1930 has completed its 29th year as an active organization for girls. The officers of the GAL, together with Miss Leonhardt, who is the instructor of girl's gym classes, have indeed proved the GAL as a worthwhile program.

The GAL, united as a group, keeps alive the spirit of sportsmanship with activities such as bowling, horseback riding, roasts, picnics, and splash parties. The purpose of this organization is to promote athletic abilities with physical and health programs for its members.

An athletic banquet climaxes the year with letters, chevrons, pins, bracelets, and trophies which are awarded to members who have earned sufficient points.

4 Texas Team ready for action

Mom and Dad another important part of Central is her organizations, which form our social life. We would like to introduce you to these and acquaint you with the activities they entail.

The Student Council or the governing body of the school, not only rules but upholds the traditional activities and creates new ones. While the SC maintains the physical welfare, the Student Spiritual Council, or the SSC, provides the spiritual aspects of life. You will note that these Committees, the Eucharistic-Marian, the St. John Berchmans Society, and others, through their aims and purposes, further the devotion to our Lord and His Blessed Mother.

We have Clubs, such as the Future Teachers, the Future Nurses, and Chemistry, which stress the professional aims; the Chess, Radio, and Camera Club, which foster hobbies; the Glee Club, Band and Orchestra, which train the musically inclined; the Centric, the school paper, the Centripetal, which encourage those of us who like to write and edit the school news.

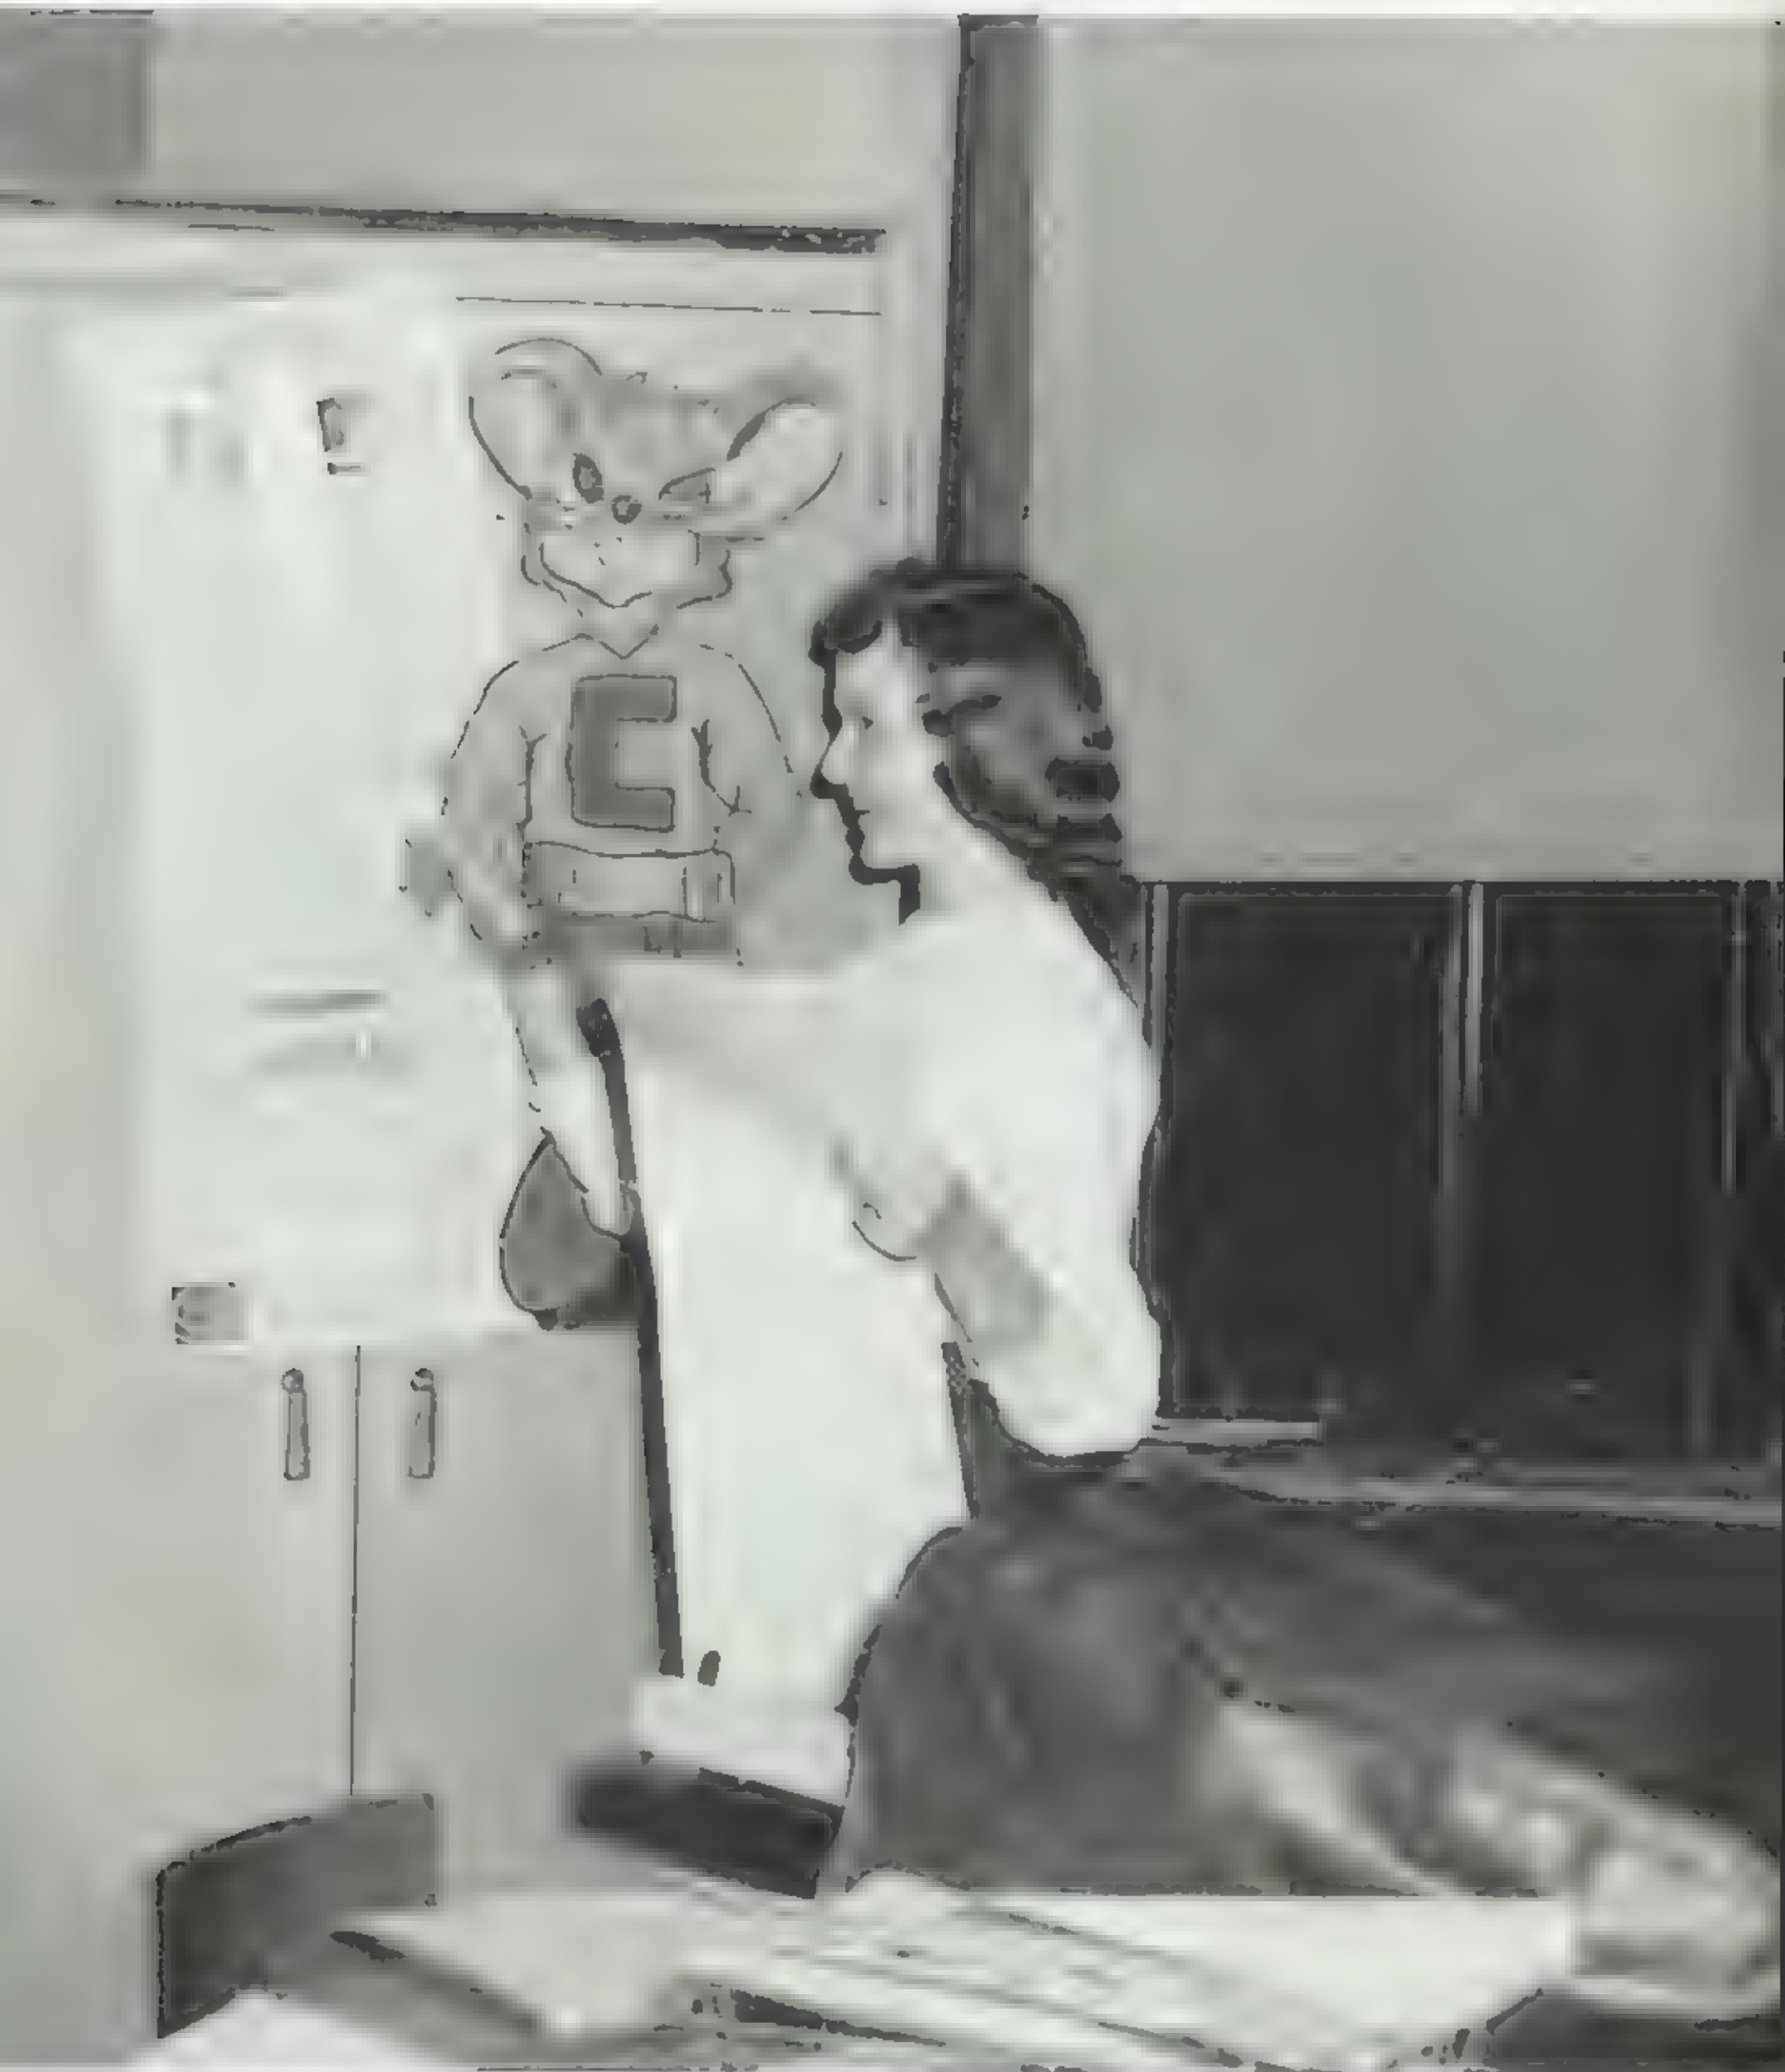

Because they add to our social life and also climax our senior year we placed the Senior Play, the Operetta, the Junior-Senior Prom, the May Convocation and Graduation in this portion of the book. When you have finished this section you will have lived the 1958-'59 school year with us at Central.

Mom and Dad, through your loving sacrifices we have received our education in what we think is the best school in the United States and we wish to thank you.

Gratefully,

"Squeek" the mascot of ool paper, scooped the organizations for you.

Student Council

Center of Student Government

Under the direction of Sister de Paul and Mr. Tim Dever, the Student Council completed its twenty-sixth year with many outstanding achievements to its credit.

Composed of its four officers, the commissioners of the various departments, the class officers, a representative from each conference room and all recognized clubs, the Student Council is the voice of the student body and gives all the opportunities to participate in student government.

The Student Council Officers, all class officers, all senators, commissioners, a representative from the Inter-Club Council, and the two faculty members form the Student Senate. The four Class Councils, senior, junior, sophomore and freshman, constitute the lower house of legislature. They have as members the class officers, two senators, and elected representatives from every classroom.

At monthly meetings the opinions of all are expressed, discussed, and acted upon and by this means, the promotion of social, spiritual, and athletic activities are attained, bringing the students and the faculty closer together.

The Student Council has participated in such activities as the Easter Lily and Polio Drives, the Student Council Dance, the Homecoming Celebration, and many others, making it a successful year.

Commissioners:

Janet Sullivan, publicity; Mike Morse, traffic; Pat O'Neill, justice;
 Joan Stearns, merit; Helen Klinger, sales tax; Judy Francis and Jerry Arkebauer, senior senators;
 John Rihack, social activities; Kathy Palmer and Jim Kerscher, art;

The Eucharistic-Marian committee promotes devotion to the mother of God, the Blessed Virgin Mary. To encourage this devotion, they conduct campaigns to encourage more frequent attendance at Mass, and reception of Holy Communion. They also sponsor the May Convocation, during which the statute of the Blessed Virgin was crowned by Patricia Wozny and Charles Ritter.

This year the Eucharistic-Marian Committee initiated the Rosary Crusade. The whole school participated for the intention of our Basketball Championship and the Conversion of China. It consisted of the student body saying rosaries before March 20, for the special intention of world peace.

Standing: M. Grana, A. Sobb, C. Albrecht, M. Ruddy, H. Abraham, P. Healey.

The Apostolic Committee endeavors to spread Christ's work through His kingdom. A member from each conference room attends the monthly meetings, and as a group, they strive to better the mission activities conducted in the school.

This club sponsors numerous activities to raise money for the missions including the annual sale of Christmas cards and wrappings, ransoms, and participation in the Bishops' Relief Fund. This year, a new idea of a Christmas card post office was put into effect and it proved to be successful.

The members of the girls' art department have the privilege of caring for Christ the King Chapel. They prepare the chapel for all liturgical functions and dedicate their work to the honor and glory of God. Altar cards were given to Monsignor Harrington on behalf of all the girls as a token of appreciation for the opportunity of being close to God in their work. The guild is divided into three orders: apprentice, journeymen, and masters each performing special duties.

St. John Berchman

Knights of the Altar

Among the many societies here at Central, one that is outstanding is St. John Berchman's founded in 1936. Its chief purpose is to encourage religious vocations. The duties of the freshman through senior boys are to serve at Mass, assist at First Friday services, lead the Stations of the Cross during Lent and take part in the May Convocation.

The boys are under the direction of Sister Mary Louis, who has contributed much time and effort to this society.

Girls' C. A. A.

Design In Motion

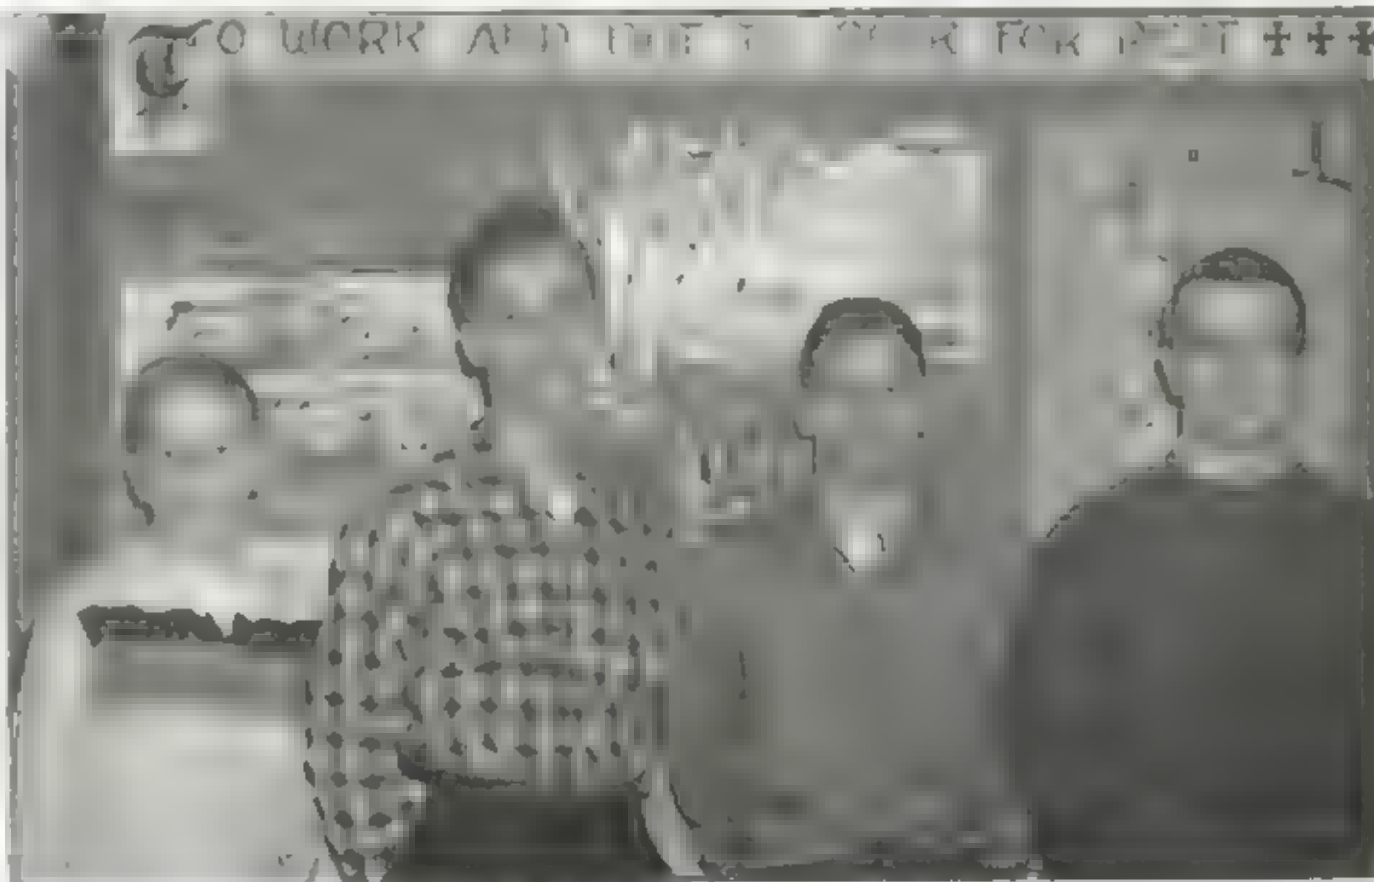

"Put a magazine under that wood when you start cutting," "remember simplicity is the keynote to success." These were just some of the statements made by Sister Mary Joanne in the girls' art department when they ventured into designing their own crucifixes.

Every year projects are carried on throughout both semesters; the designing of the Operetta cover, liturgical books, and a Toledo cartoon were among the chief projects.

Boys' C. A. A.

Under the guidance of Sister Mary Genevieve, the boys' art classes are combined into the Catholic Art Apostolate, which strives to bring about the uplifting of religious standards of art.

The club meets weekly to report on famous artists of the past, to discuss and debate whether his creative talents entail religious standards. The boys discussion groups analyze artist's works, and use his works as fundamentals for the betterment of their own talents. These boys also fashion the bulletin board in the main lobby.

The main idea of the organization is to promote interest in the happenings associated with class matters and outside historical events. It is open to all sophomore and junior history students under the direction of Sister Mary of Mercy.

At weekly meetings the assigned topic of that particular day is the center of discussion.

This spring their annual trip which is being eagerly looked forward to by all the members, will be to Put-In-Bay.

K. Kamper, P. Slusor, W. Flynn and E. Wasmann plan the meeting activities.

J. DiDomenico, L. Staszak, D. Metzger await signals from other "hams".

Math Club

Figure Fighters

Junior and senior math students, directed by Sister Mary Teresita O.S.F., try to interest the members in the phases of Math not touched upon in the classroom. Monthly meetings are held at which new branches of the subject are discussed and absorbed.

By promoting the study of college entrance exams for prospective candidates, comprehensive contest for ambitious students, mathematic convention conducted by students, student research and project exhibits a definite interest in mathematics has been established.

Radio Club

Hams On Air

Central Catholic operates its own radio station, W8QVJ, under the direction of senior, Larry Staszak, president of the club.

Weekly meetings are held in the basement of the Music Building, during which time the boys discuss radio theory and work on obtaining their ham-radio licences. This radio station has been in operation for seven years.

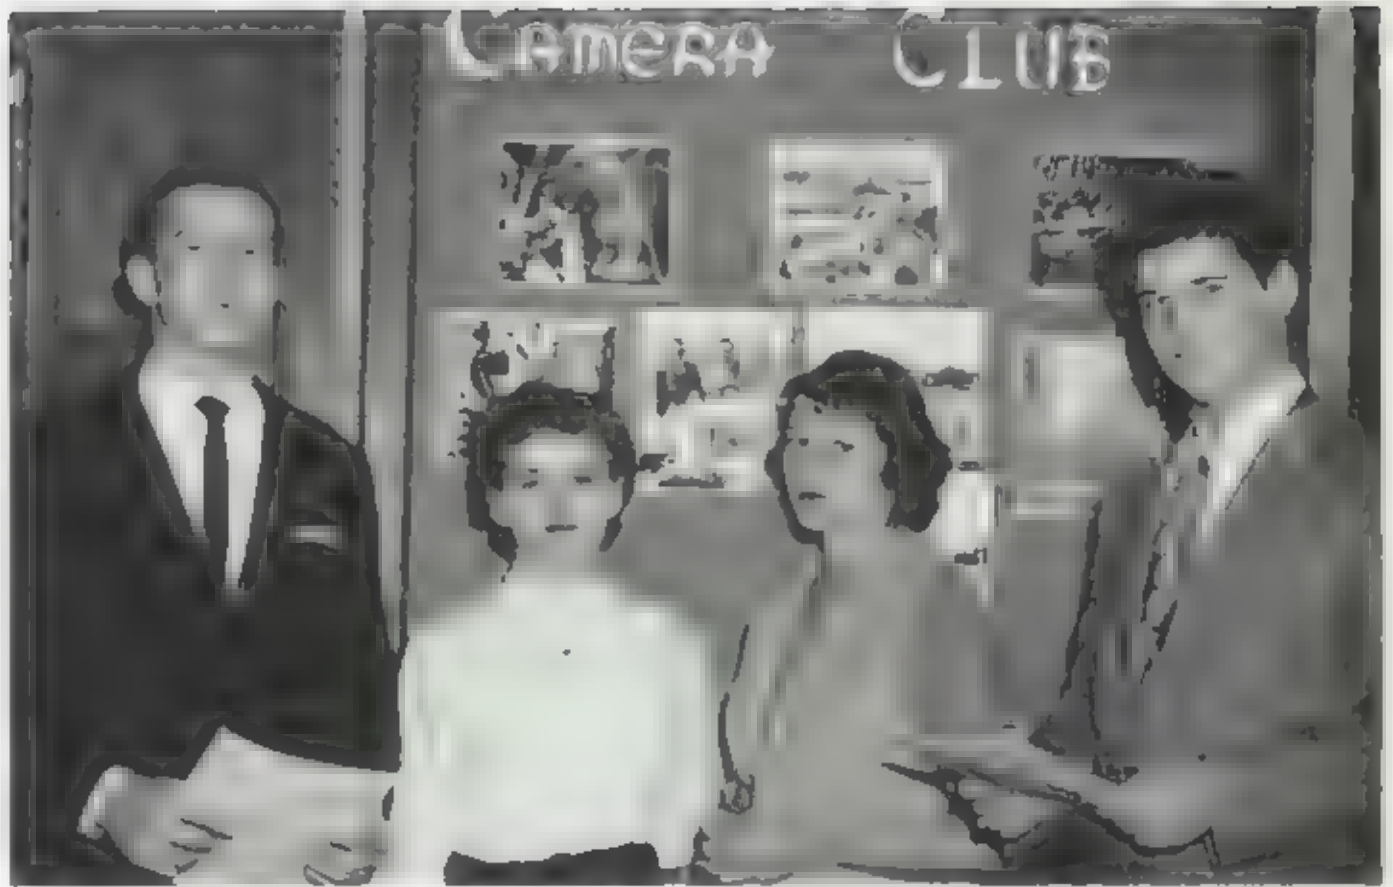

The use of the station enables members to communicate with fellow radio-men throughout the city and state.

Camera Club

Flicker-Clickers

The members of this organization become familiar with the different operations of all types of cameras and the process of photographic development.

The enthusiasm of the members is shown throughout the activities in which their initiative is displayed. Their endless vigor will continue as long as their energetic director, Sister Genevieve, is sparked with her constant enthusiasm to spread her knowledge of photography and its uses.

The Chess Club, under the supervision of Fr. Jude, embodies in its two-fold program opportunities for the members to gain skill by constant practices and training in sportsmanship and chess etiquette. With a membership well above that of last spring this year's club participated in an area chess league, with a quite credible, if not excellent showing.

The Biology Club

Explorers of Nature

A science dealing with the complexity and the simplicity of life summarizes what biology means. Therefore, the main objective of the Biology Club is to infuse into the students, a greater realization and appreciation of the surrounding plants, animals, and mineral that God has placed before us. Through the microscope they observe the minute living creatures, the living organisms that are a factor in our daily living, in order to acquaint themselves with the wonders of nature.

Under the direction of Sister Mary Perpetua, girls and boys from all the biology classes meet monthly for scientific discussions.

The Chemistry Club

Mad Scientists

The Chemistry Club is in its second year of existence and is affiliated with the Science Club of America. The main purpose of the club is the furtherance of scientific knowledge. At the monthly meetings, experiments were performed or a guest speaker talked on some branch of chemistry. Tours were also taken through the Crime Lab and Allied Chemical Co. to learn the use of chemistry in these diversified fields. The club also gave an assembly where they performed and explained experiments on colored fire and liquids.

Library Club

Book Worms Inc.

Under the direction of Sister Mary David O.S.U., the boys and girls of this club work to encourage students to make use of their school library. Books and pamphlets are exhibited and displayed for examination by the student body. New books are continually being promoted to show that Catholic reading material, whether fiction or biography, is still available. During retreat the members gather many wonderful spiritual books for students to read during conference. Thus through book reviews and displays, literature is continually being promoted.

Future Envoys

The aim of the Junior Council on World Affairs is to acquaint its members with the current affairs of today and to create a lively interest in the happenings of tomorrow.

This club is affiliated with the Junior Council on World Affairs in Toledo, and a number of Central students participate in the annually sponsored trip to Washington and New York.

The main activity of the year was a mock "Reunification of Germany" conference, held at Toledo University on April 17. Each school in the city represented the government of one foreign country. Central represented Poland.

Music Department

Tune-up Time

Many varied opportunities are afforded the musically inclined at Central. Those who plan to make music their career may major in it.

Mr. Gerald V. DePrisco conducts the Band, Orchestra and Glee Club. Sister Mary Almeda R.S.M. directs the Girls' Choral groups and teaches music appreciation, harmony and theory.

Although the most important goal of The Glee Club is the presentation of the annual operetta the members also perform at school assemblies, parish programs, and other social events.

The Orchestra which performed on many occasions, including the traditional Christmas assembly, provided incidental music for the Senior Play, the "Song of Bernadette." Their crowning achievement was the playing of the wonderful music of "Swanboat," this year's memorable operetta.

The Band contributed to the spirit and entertainment at the half time ceremonies of all our football games. Their smart marching was seen and their melodious notes heard at the Christmas Parade, St. Patrick's Day Parade and the Memorial Day Parade.

Holds a Message For the World

Bernadette beholds the vision of our Lady

Central's seniors honored our Lady of Lourdes by presenting as their Class Play, "The Song of Bernadette." Under the direction of Mrs. R. Weiher, moderator, Jean and Walter Kerr's three act dramatization of Franz Werfel's novel was staged in the school's auditorium, November 21, 22, and 23.

In this "moving play" Bernadette (Judy Hafner) worried her parents, Soubirous and Louise Soubirous (Paul Kokocinski and Jane Conyers); annoyed Dean Peyramale (Roger Krempa) when she told him to build a chapel where her vision appeared; aggravated Sister Marie Therese Vauzous (Roseanne Modrowski) when she remained true to her vision, and in the grand finale convinced all that her vision was true.

Showboat

Captain Andy*

Under the direction of Mrs. Roger W. Weiher and Mr. Gerald V. DePrisco, the Music Department presented "Showboat" on April 17, 18 and 19. The operetta had a striking difference from those presented in previous years; there were no specific leads—all players had an important part. The musical score featured "Ole Man River," "Can't Help Loving Dat Man" and "Make Believe."

The setting was on board the "Cotton Blossom" showboat in the late 1880's. As the curtain rose, Captain Andy (James Tomczak) and Parthy Hawkins (Sharon Wichowski) with their little band of troupers (Julie Steve, Windy Willie Frank,

1. Ravenal tells Magnolia, "You Ain't Love"

All went well until Pete (Donald Yarter), a local crook, told Vallor (Richard Dooley), the sheriff, of a case of intermarriage on board. The married couple Julie (Jane Reiter) and Steve (Richard Clark) were forced to leave. But the show "must go on," so Gaylord Laverell (Norman Clark), a million gambler, was hired to play the main lead and Magnolia (Dorothy Lawandowski) replaced as heroine. Magnolia and Laverell, after leaving, moved to Chicago where city life offered many hardships. Through the help of Magnolia and their daughter Kim, the three led a successful and happy life. With this setting the story is concluded.

Carla DeFalco—Queen of Homecoming Game

Homecoming Annual Reunion

Homecoming, an annual event which welcomes back all "Alumni and Friends of Central," took place this year at the Central-Libbey Game, November 7

Five senior girls, Joyce LaMont, Marlene Pachucki, Patricia Bunner, Patricia Baron and Carla DeFalco, were escorted by the "Red and Gray" car caravan from the school to the Glass Bowl.

At half-time Carla DeFalco, crowned Homecoming Queen by Larry Swartz, president of the Student Council, reigned over the remaining part of the game

TASC Dance Area Festival

At mid-semester term the Area Student Council dance held at the Naval Armory provided the "pause that refreshes." Each member school selected a queen candidate to represent it at the dance

The senior boys nominated ten senior girls, the Student Senate reduced it to five and the entire senior class chose Judy Thrun as Central's queen candidate

Co-editor

Barbara Kusner

The pounding of typewriter keys, the sound of the copy readers pens, the noisy hum-drum of the editors in consultation with the reporters are familiar sounds occurring in Room 124, the Centric office, when the students in second and third period journalism publish the school paper. The Centric is a bi-weekly newspaper containing student and faculty news, school activities, sports coverage, editorials and alumni news.

The co-editors are assisted by the first, second, third and fourth page editors, then staffs, the business and circulation staff, and the all important typists, reporters and proof-readers.

M. Ruddy, J. O'ger, K. Duffy, M. Farmer, V. Scott, J. Neanever, D. Pawlow, the business staff of the Centre prepared the ad set-up, took care of the classroom and mail circulation and were responsible for all money matters.

Record of the Year

Co-editor

Herman Trabbie

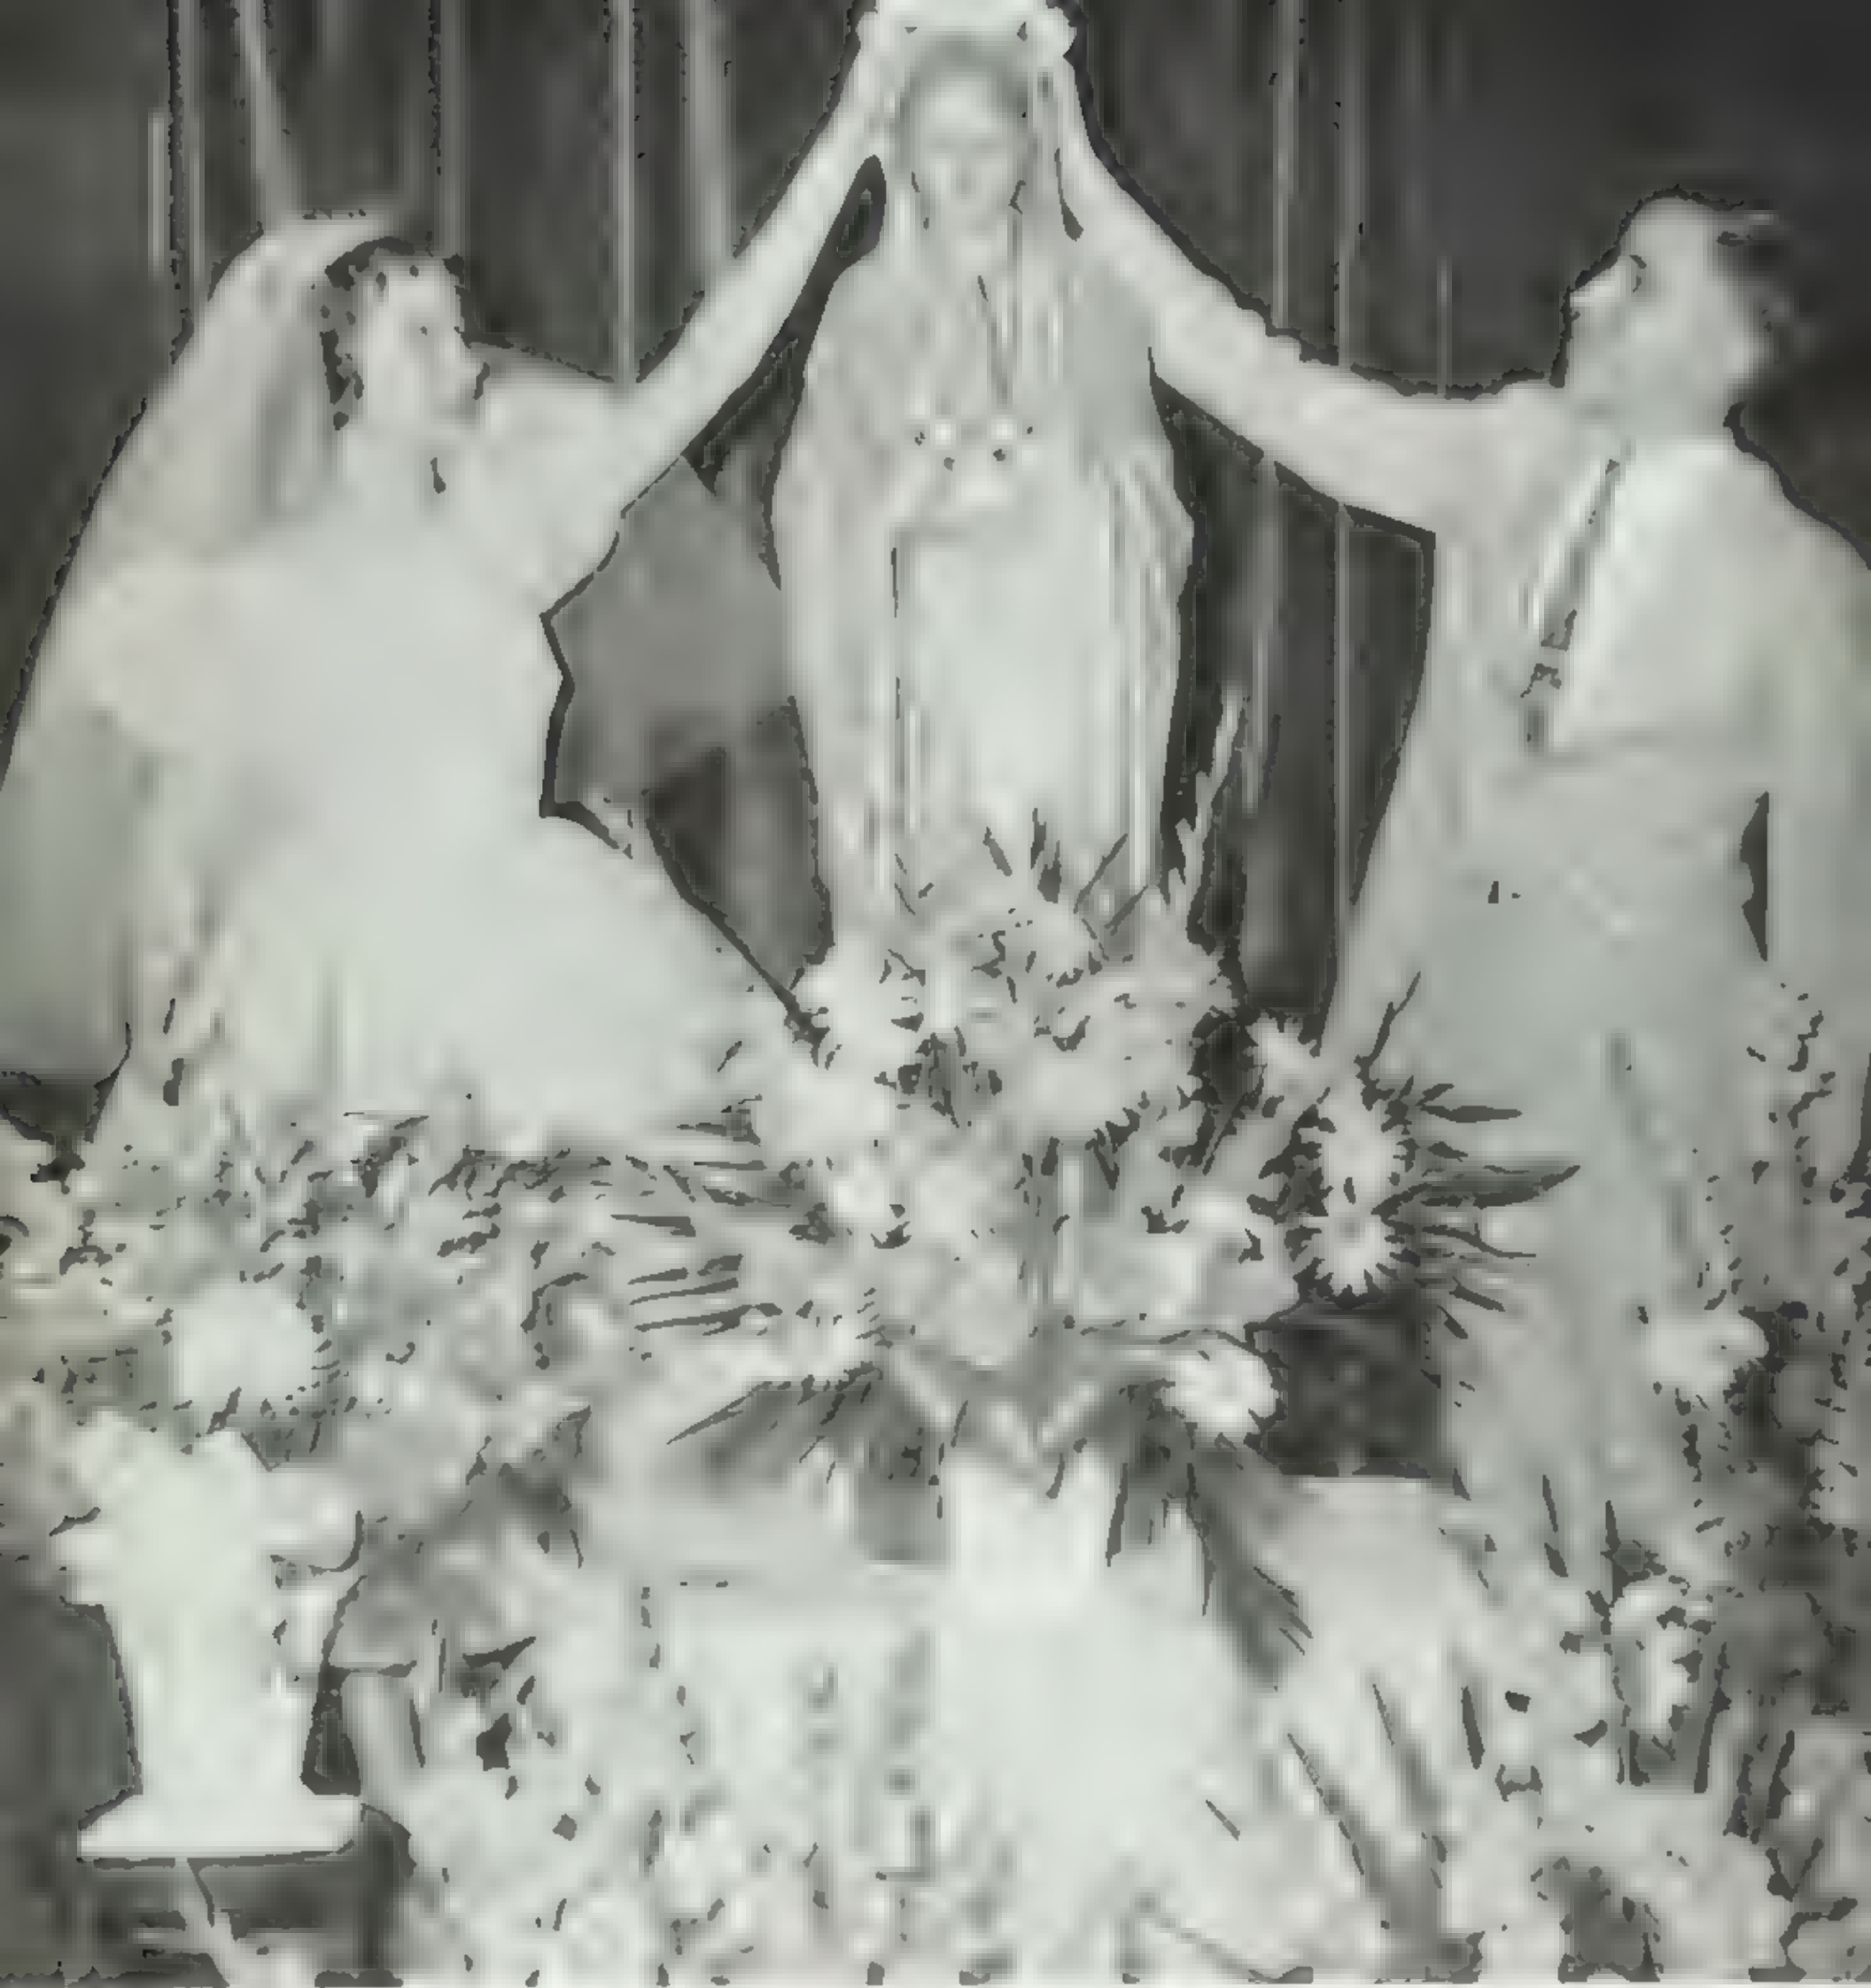

The annual production of our yearbook, the Centripetal, is made possible by the guidance of Sister Mary Grace O.S.U. over her journalism class. The sincere efforts of this group to publish "the best ever" found many students working diligently during classtime and after school.

In mid-October, appointments to different positions on the staff were announced in our school paper. Melanie Conti and Herman Trabbie were chosen as co-editors because of their outstanding ability and leadership. With the cooperation of the entire Centripetal staff, they have tried to record all memorable events which have occurred in the 1958-'59 school year.

May Convocation

Crowning of Central's Queen

The annual May Convocation is an event of the school year that is always a memorable occasion in the life of every student.

This special recognition of Mary as our Mother and as Mediatrix is so given because she is the Patroness of Central.

As Patricia Wozny and Charles Ritter place the crown of flowers on Mary's head each student consecrates himself to Our Lady, as one of Her children.

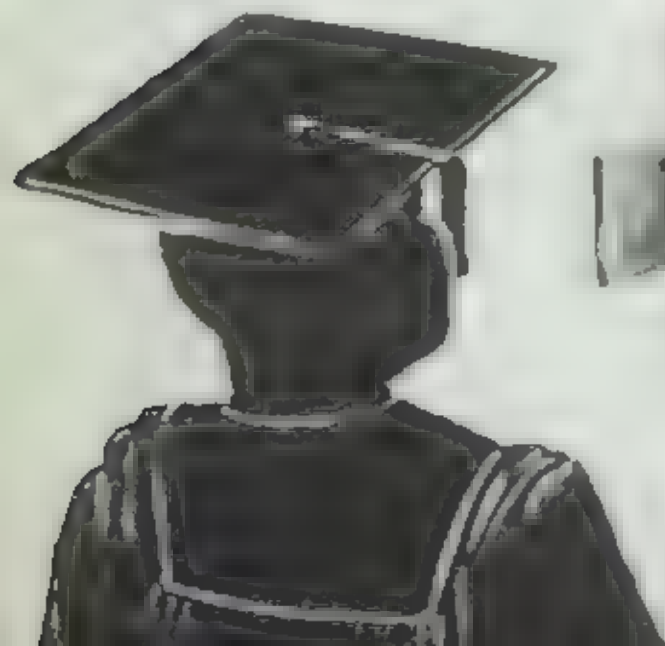

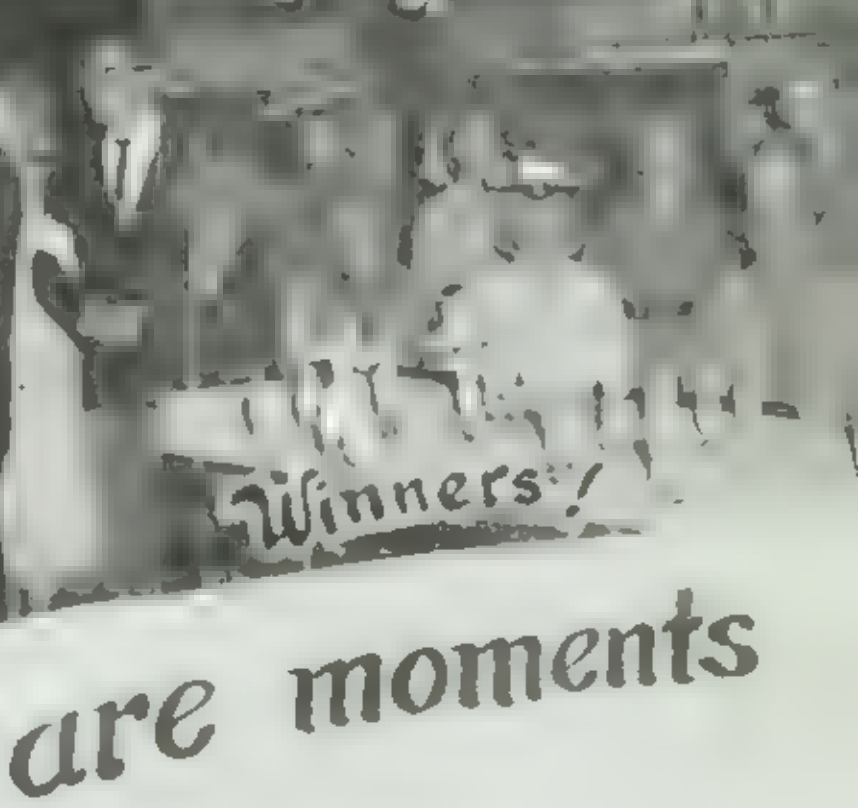

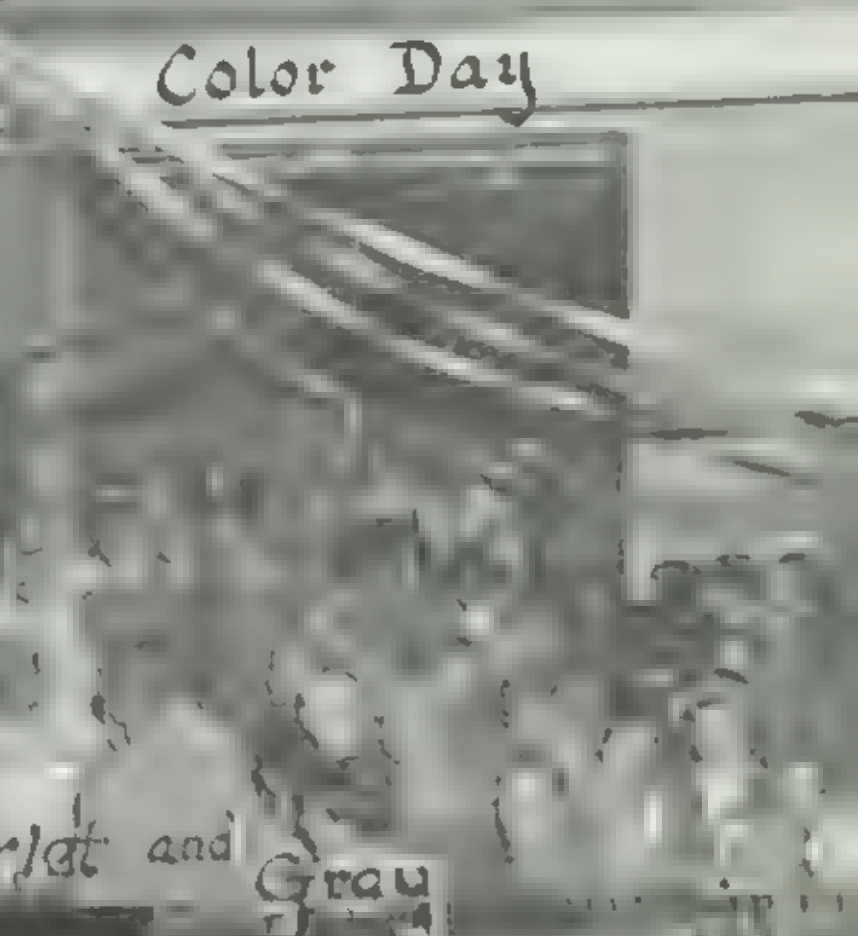

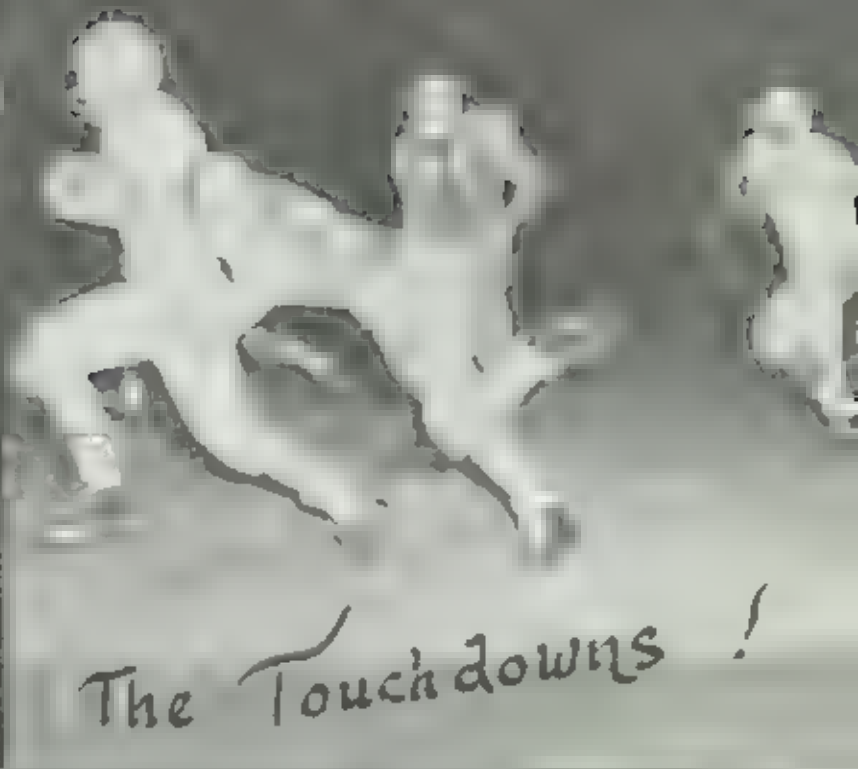

Graduation

Farewell To All

The most rewarding event of the student's four years of high school is graduation day. In the presence of his bishop, his principal, his parents, friends, and classmates, he bids farewell to his Alma Mater.

The commencement exercises, which take place in the Sports Arena, are momentous for the senior for at this time he expresses not only his sorrow, but also his sincere thanks for the influence Central has had on his life.

Glass Has Made A Difference

Now is the time to reflect upon the "good ole' days" in school — the many friends, your favorite teachers, sports and dances and parties. But when looking at today's school architecture we think you'll agree that glass has made a difference!

Here's picture-proof that school corridors don't have to be dark and dreary tunnels. No longer must walls be solid and opaque. Today, more attention is being paid to daylight and view.

When reflecting upon the advantages of this glass age, we think you'll agree that the "good new days" are better.
